NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Miss Elvira Ball of Holyoke, Thrown from Automobile Upon Elm St. Macadam—Horse Backed Into River and Furnished Excitement—Yacht on Stonington Breakwater—Fat Men Had Outing and Bake.

The boys and girls, 326 of them, assembled at the church and marched in body to the town square where they boarded trolley cars for Watch Hill.
Amusements were furnished for the children and all had a most enjoyable time.

When Father McOscar was on his second noviate the children feared he would not return and that they would be deprived of the outing that has been an annual event since Father McOscar came to Westerly. Upon being reassigned, Father McOscar immediately began preparations for the picnic and the children's happiness was manifested.

James M. Pendleton, committee on prizes for the annual tournament of the Misquamicutt Golf club, received signed.

Among the prizes is a club trophy to the winner of the tournament, the of defeated clubs, prizes for lowest gross and net scores, and runner-up prizes.

The annual clambake of the Westerly Fat Men association was held Thursday at Brightman's pond, the attendance being large in numbers as well as in appetites. On this occasion in addition to the chowders and extra a genuine old fashioned Rhode Island clambake was served and all were dolly and happy. The association is local in name only, as its membership includes residents of New London and Washington counties and beyond.

BENEVOLENCE FUND.
Provision Made by Deacon Edward Sterling in Will Filed Thursday for Probate.

By the will of Deacon Edward Sterling, filed in the probate court Thursday, it was found that he has maintained a benevolent fund into which about 10 per cent. of the net earnings of his fortune for many years was distributed among the poor and needy of this city. It was further learned that in a quiet, unostentatious manner, he has contributed liberally to charitable organizations and provides for a fund for a continuance of his benevolence.
He left an estate of about a quarter of a million dollars.

The will was drawn June 20, 1898, by the late Curtis Thompson. By its terms the balance in the fund mentioned is given to societies and individuals named in a memorandum left but which has not yet been filed.
He leaves one-quarter of the residue of the estate to his widow, Rebecca A.
Sterling, in lieu of dower, together with the household furniture and life use of the dwelling house at the southwest corner of 2nd and 1st streets, streets, with the power to dispose of the property if she deems it advisable.
The remainder is given, respectively, to each of his children, Mrs. Mrs.
Janet A. Van Tassel, Mrs. Emma R.
Carter and Mrs. Alice B. Cook.

Deacon Sterling is the father of the late George B. Sterling, in trust until May 16, 1912, when the youngest becomes of age, and the property becomes theirs absolutely. And Willis H.
Lyon were appointed appraisers of the estate.

The testator was president of the Spring Perch company, president of the Bridgeport Elastic Webb company for twenty-five years, and director in several banks.—Bridgeport Telegram.

OCCUM AND VERSAILLES

Annual Sunday School Picnic of M. E.
Church Was a Big Success—Totokett Teams Play Ball—Personal Mention.

There was a large gathering on the Wolfe farm Saturday afternoon at the annual Sunday school picnic of the Versailles M. E. church. F. H. Topf, the Sunday school superintendent, assisted by Mrs. William Mell, Mrs. C.
W. Perkins, Mrs. T. H. Topf and Miss Cora Tarbox, provided amusements to keep everybody busy during the afternoon.

After the supper, a race was the racing began. The prize was were the prize was.

The affair was a very enjoyable one for the parents as well as the children.

Mockingbird in Massachusetts.
Massachusetts is to entertain two distinguished visitors—the president at Beverly and the southern mockingbird in the woods of Duxbury. And it is a pretty question which is the more royally and loyally welcomed.
The Boston Globe, for instance, records the visit of a pair of mockingbirds to the fresh fields and pastures of new Duxbury as an event of exceeding rarity and interest. It says that the mockingbirds, which are known to those who have made a study of birds—meaning, of course, bird students in Massachusetts, and adds:
"To such persons it will be of interest to learn that a pair of mockingbirds are making Duxbury their summer home this year. They were first noticed about three weeks ago, when they made themselves at home about a house in the southern part of the town. The beauty of the songs brought neighbors to watch them in a few days they left the place, having apparently found more to their liking a swamp near by at the bottom of an apple orchard."

This is interesting to many more than students of bird-life in Massachusetts. It is good to know that we are sending this bird to the heart of New England such eloquent envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary.
We may confidently entrust to them our cause and our friendly messages to that section.—Columbia, S. C. State.

The Cost of Living.
In 1893 we had a panic. Prices had begun to fall in 1891, when it was foreseen. By 1894 the statistical average of prices was 14.8 "points," or say, 15 per cent. below the boom year, 1890.
Prices remained low for five years, showing at the bottom a decline of more than one-quarter. The panic was curbed by the tariff and the law of supply and demand had few were told given place to benevolent industrial dictatorship. The steel trust for months held prices high and the general disadvantageous. The big glassmakers held the little ones in line. Lumber could not decline much, because under high tariffs we have cut nearly all our trees. Food and clothing rose in cost. And the stated prices of all commodities averaged 10 points higher in 1896, in the profound depression after the panic, than they were in the boom year, 1890.

Twenty years of progress and invention had gone for naught. The world was cheaper, but poorer. It was it was costing 1898, when a industry had in 1890, and all this

It is not a QUESTION OF PRICE
The few Hammocks we have must go.
